Conclude the evening with dancing in the elegant Grand Salon, with family and friends.

It is our goal to provide each couple with a beautiful and memorable beginning to their life together.

Clos LaChance: The Wines

Clos LaChance Wines is a small, family-owned winery, located in the heart of the Santa Clara Valley, producing hand-made wines from local vineyards and other premium appellations throughout California.

Clos LaChance takes its name from the small fenced-in area encompassing a vineyard (Clos) and from co-owner Brenda Murphy's maiden name. The hummingbird was chosen as the winery's symbol for both its aesthetic beauty and its ability to keep other birds away from the grapes. In 1987, co-owners Bill and Brenda Murphy decided to plant some Chardonnay in their Saratoga backyard. The wine was good enough that people wanted to buy it. It was at this point that Clos LaChance formed into a company. The first commercially released wines were from the 1992 vintage.

VINEYARDS

Any winemaker needs high-quality grapes to produce great wine. In addition to being one of the most beautiful places in California, the Santa Clara Valley also grows some of the state's finest grapes. The rugged topography of the region limits the size of individual vineyards. In addition, the costs associated with planting mountain vineyards limit the overall acreage devoted to grapes in this cool, coastal appellation.
